46. The K. Srinivasa Iyengar Scholarships

Founder.—Mr. K. Srinivasa Iyengar, Engineer in-Chief, Mysore Railways.

Object.—For the encouragement of professional studies like Medicine, Engineering, Law, Agriculture, etc.

Date.—1925.

Original amount.—Rs. 5,000.

Subsequent additions to corpus.—Rs. 150.

Rate of interest on investment.—

4 per cent on Rs. 5,000.

5 per cent on Rs. 150.

Conditions of grant.—1. The interest on the endowment shall be utilised for the award of two scholarships of equal value for the L.M.P. course according to the following conditions :—

2. Only Brahmana students who are Mysoreans shall be eligible for the scholarships ; provided that one of the scholarships shall always be held by a Srivaishnava Brahmana and the other by a non-Srivaishnava Brahmana.

3. Each scholarship shall be awarded in the first year of the course and be tenable for the whole length of the course subject to the usual conditions of satisfactory progress, conduct and attendance, provided that both the scholarships shall not be held in the same class of the course.

A scholarship may be discontinued in the middle of the course if it is found that the general circumstances of the holder have improved subsequently so that he can continue his studies without the help of this scholarship.

4. The scholarship shall be awarded mainly on consideration of poverty.

When there are two or more poor students eligible for a scholarship when it is first awarded in the first year class, it shall be awarded to the one who shall have obtained the highest percentage of total marks in the highest examination passed by the applicants.

In the event of there being more than one applicant obtaining equal marks, the University shall have the discretionary power to award the scholarship to the most deserving among them.

5. Poor students who are in receipt of no other aid and who would otherwise find it difficult to prosecute their studies will have preferential treatment over others having other aids.

6. During the life-time of the donor any recommendation made by him regarding any poor student for a scholarship may be considered by the Medical School Council in awarding the scholarship.

7. When a vacancy occurs in any class, the scholarship may be awarded according to the foregoing conditions to a deserving poor student in the same class; failing which it may be awarded to a new student entering the course, provided that there is no student in the first year class already holding the scholarship.

8. If, in any year, there is no student eligible for any of the scholarships, the interest shall be added to the corpus.

9. If, at any future time, the Medical School should be abolished, the interest on the endowment may be utilised for the award of a single scholarship in the Medical College to a deserving Srivaishnava Brahmin student, the other conditions of award being as above mutatis mutandis.

10. The scholarship shall be awarded, for the present, for medical education. In course of time, if this branch of profession should be sufficiently encouraged otherwise, then the scholarship may be diverted to other professional studies which require help. Such diversion and change in the value of the scholarships and the manner of payment may be made by the University Council with the consent in writing of the donor during his life-time.

91. The Central College Diamond Jubilee Prize

Founder.—The Central College Old Boys' Association.

Object.—To commemorate the celebration of the Diamond Jubilee of the Central College.

Date.—1936.

Original amount.—Rs. 1,000.

Rate of interest on investment.—4 per cent.

Conditions of grant.—1. The interest on the endowment shall be utilised for the award, in the form of books, of a prize called "The Central College Diamond Jubilee Prize," annually to the student of the Central College, Bangalore, who obtains the highest percentage of total marks in the B.A., or the B.Sc. Degree Examination, passing in all the parts of the examination in the same year at the first attempt.

2. If, in any year, the prize is not awarded for want of a suitable candidate, the interest for that year shall be added to the corpus.

3. The University Council shall have power to invest the amount in the most suitable manner and to make such changes in the above terms of award as may be found necessary, but without infringing the main object of the foundation, which is to award a prize to a student of the Central College.

92. The S. R. Seethamma Prize

Founder.—Anonymous.

Object.—For the encouragement of the practical study of the diseases of women particularly relating to pregnancy and child-birth.

Date.—1937.

Original amount.—Rs. 1,500.

Rate of interest on investment.—4 per cent.

Conditions of grant.—1. The interest on the endowment shall be utilised for the award annually of a prize to the candidate who presents the most meritorious thesis on a specified subject relating to Midwifery, Gynæcology and Pædiatrics, particular emphasis being laid on the prophylactic aspects of the subject with reference to conditions in the State. Students of the final year M.B.B.S. class and medical graduates of the University of Mysore of not more than five years' standing shall be eligible to compete.

2. The special subject shall be announced one year in advance and the thesis presented shall be judged by two examiners, one of whom shall be the professor of the subject in the University and the other shall be appointed by the Principal of the Medical College in consultation with the College Council. A copy of the successful thesis shall be forwarded to the donor for information during his life-time.

3. If, in any year, in the opinion of the examiners, there should be no candidate of sufficient merit, the prize shall be withheld. In such case the interest shall be added to the corpus of the fund.

4. The University Council shall have power to invest the amount in the most suitable manner in its opinion and to make such changes in the terms of award as may be found necessary in consultation with the donor during his life-time but without infringing the main object of the foundation.

93. The Paraki Medical Scholarship

Founder.—Mr. P. S. Govinda Rao, Retired Deputy Conservator of Forests, Mysore.

Object.—To perpetuate the memory of his brother, the late Dr. P. S. Achyutha Rao, who rendered valuable services to the State and was the first Mysorean to be appointed Senior Surgeon to the Government of Mysore.

Date.—1937.

Original Amount.—Rs. 2,500.

Rate of interest on investment.—4 per cent.

Conditions of grant—1. The interest on the endowment shall be utilised to award a scholarship in the Medical College.

2. The scholarship shall be called 'The Paraki Medical Scholarship.'

3. The scholarship shall be awarded every year to the student of the final year class who shall have secured the highest number of marks in medicine in the promotion examination held in the fourth year class. If the student who has secured the highest marks in medicine is entitled to any other scholarship, this scholarship shall be awarded to the next in order of merit. The continuance of the scholarship throughout the year shall be subject to satisfactory progress, conduct and attendance.

4. The University Council shall be competent to invest the amount of the endowment in the most suitable manner in its opinion and change the rules of award in conformity with any change in the course of studies, provided that the main object of the donor, namely the encouragement of the study of medicine, is kept in view

5. If, in any year, the scholarship is not awarded, the interest shall be added to the corpus.

94. The Siraj-ul-Ulema Syed Shahaboodin Sajjada Scholarship

Founder.—Moin-ul-Vizarath Mr. A.K. Syed Taj Peeran Sajjada, B.A.

Object.—To encourage the pursuit of professional studies by Muslims.

Date.—1937.

Original amount.—Rs. 5,000.

Rate of interest on investment.—4 per cent.

Conditions of grant.—1. The interest on the endowment shall be utilised for the award of a scholarship named the "Siraj-ul-Ulema Syed Shahaboodin Sajjada Scholarship" to a Muslim student prosecuting his studies for the M.B.B.S. degree or the B.E. degree in the University of Mysore, a student proceeding to the M.B.B.S. degree course being always preferred to one proceeding to the B.E. degree course.

2. The scholarship shall be awarded in the first year of the course concerned to the best among the Muslim students entering the course as judged by the results of the preceding qualifying examination and shall be tenable throughout the course, subject to the usual conditions of satisfactory progress, conduct and attendance.

3. Should the scholarship fall vacant by the failure of the holder thereof to secure promotion to the next higher class, it shall be awarded afresh in the first year of either course as in clauses 1 and 2 preceding. In the absence of a student in the first year class, it shall be awarded to a Muslim student in any class of either course; failing such a student it shall be re-awarded to the previous holder for a second year. In the event of a second failure, it shall not be awarded to him again in the same class.

4. Should the scholarship fall vacant in the middle of a session, it shall be awarded to a Muslim student in the same class and in the absence of such a student it shall be awarded as in the preceding clause.

5. In the absence of a qualified candidate in either institution, the interest shall be added to the corpus.

6. The University Council shall have power to invest the amount in the most suitable manner in its opinion and to make such changes in the above conditions of award as may be found necessary, provided that the main object of the foundation, viz, to encourage the pursuit of professional studies by Muslim students, is kept in view.

95. Rajasabhabhushana Diwan Bahadur Sir K. P. Puttanna Chetty's Endowment for Publications

Founder.—Rajasabhabhushana Diwan Bahadur Sir K. P. Puttanna Chetty, Retired Member of Council.

3. The Publications shall form a series to be called the Sir K. P. Puttanna Chetty Endowment Publications.

4. The University Council shall select the books to be written from time to time and the author for each book and fix the remuneration to be paid to the author, the sale price of the book and other details relating to the publication.

5. It shall be competent for the University Council to appoint a committee to advise it in respect of the publications.

6. It shall be competent for the University Council to adopt, if finances permit, any additional measure calculated to further the objects of the endowment. Before giving effect to such measure, the University Council shall obtain the consent of the Government of Mysore and of the Donor during his life-time.

7. It shall be competent for the University Council to invest the funds in the most suitable manner in its opinion.

96. Mr. B. M. Srikantia Kannada Scholarships

Founder.—Mr. B. M. Srikantia, M.A., B.L., Professor of English, Central College, Bangalore.

Object.—To encourage the advanced study of Kannada in the University.

Date.—1937.

Original amount.—Rs. 5,000.

Rate of interest on investment.—4 per cent.

Conditions of grant.—1. Out of the interest on the endowment, three scholarships of equal value called the B. M. Srikantia Kannada Scholarships shall be awarded annually, one in each of the three B.A. Honours classes in Kannada.

2. In the first year B.A. Honours class in Kannada the scholarship shall be awarded to the student who shall have obtained the highest number of marks in English and Kannada taken together in the preceding Intermediate Examination in Arts which shall be not less than 50 per cent of the aggregate marks, only those taking Kannada Honours for the B.A. being considered for this purpose.

In the second year Honours class in Kannada, the Scholarship shall be awarded to the student who shall have obtained the highest marks in the promotion examination at the end of the first year, all the subjects of the course being taken together.

In the third year Honours class in Kannada, the scholarship shall be awarded to the student who shall have scored the highest marks in the aggregate of the Preliminary Examination, and the promotion examination in the major subject and passed in the preliminary examination.

3. The scholarship may be held jointly with other scholarships or a free-studentship according to the rules in force for the time being

4. If, in any year, there is no student in any of the B.A. Honours classes eligible for the scholarship one of the scholarships thus released may be awarded to the best student in the M.A. class (in Kannada).

5. In the event of one or more of the scholarships not being awarded in any year, the unused interest shall be added to the corpus of the fund.

6. The University Council shall be competent to invest the amount of the endowment in the manner most suitable in its opinion.

7. The University will be competent to change the conditions of award to suit changes, if any, in the course, provided that the main object, viz., the encouragement of advanced Kannada studies in the University, is kept in view.

97. The Srimathi Andalamma Scholarship

SPECIAL INSTITUTIONS AND ACTIVITIES

Committee for Presentation of Archaeological Publications

The Vice-Chancellor (Chairman).

Mr. D. V. Gundappa.

The Director of Archæological Researches in Mysore.

University Publications

RULES RELATING TO THE WORK OF THE KANNADA PUBLICATION COMMITTEE

1. The Committee shall be named the Kannada Publication Committee.

2. The Committee shall consist of a chairman and five or more members not exceeding eight in all appointed by the University Council with the Registrar as Ex-officio member and Secretary. The Chairman shall be the Chief Editor.

3. The Committee shall be constituted every three years, retiring members being eligible for re-nomination.

4. It shall be the function of the Committee to select writers and to arrange for the writing and publication of books in Kannada on the basis of a programme for each year approved by the University Council. The books may generally be modelled on the lines of the Home University Library series.

5. The books may be original works, compilations, translations, suitable editions of classical works in Kannada or anthologies, source books or dictionary or other works of reference.

6. The Committee shall hold a meeting in August each year and submit to the University Council a list of books or monographs proposed to be undertaken during the following year together with the names of writers recommended and the honorarium in each case in respect of work selected. The Registrar shall on behalf of the University make the offer to the writers approved by the University Council, not later than the month of December next, on the following terms.

7. The monograph shall cover about 200 printed pages, Crown Octavo. They should show sound scholarship, accuracy regarding facts and up-to-date knowledge of the subjects dealt with. The style should be simple, idiomatic and intelligible to the general reader.

8. The honorarium to be paid will ordinarily be a sum not exceeding Rs. 500 for original works and Rs. 300 for translations, compilations, editions, etc.

9. The period allowed for writing a work shall generally be two years. It will be within the competence of the University Council, on the recommendation of the Committee, to extend it by another year and to cancel the offer at the end of three years if the work is not completed, without paying any compensation whatever to the writer.

10. The copy-right of the first edition of the work (limited to the issue of 2,000 copies) shall vest in the University. The author shall have the right of bringing out the second and subsequent editions after a period of three years, or earlier, when the first edition is sold out.

With respect to matter, get-up and price the second and subsequent editions should have the approval of the University and continue to form part of the University series. The University may give the author a grant not exceeding one-fourth of the original honorarium for each such edition.

If the author fails to bring out a second or subsequent edition, the University shall have the right of doing so after giving three months' notice to the author; and in this case the honorarium for the work shall be a lumpsum fee of not more than one quarter of the original honorarium under Rule 8 and payable to the person who undertakes the revision.

11. Ten per cent of the number of copies of every publication may be special bound ones.

On every edition brought out by the University, the author shall receive free of cost 25 copies of which five copies will be special bound and on every edition brought out by the author the University shall similarly receive 25 copies.

12. The manuscript must be approved by the University and the payment of the honorarium to the author is conditional upon the author adopting the suggestions given by the University and passing the final proof.

Compilation and abridged editions shall be considered by a Standing Committee consisting of the Chairman of the Committee and the Professor of Kannada, Maharaja's College and the Assistant Professor of Kannada, Central College.

Other works shall each be considered by an ad hoc committee consisting of the Chairman and two other members to be proposed by the Chairman subject to the approval of the Kannada Publication Committee, it being open to any other member of the Kannada Publication Committee to call for the manuscript and express his opinion and the suggestions made being finally disposed of by the Chairman in consultation with the author.

The University will act on the report furnished by Committees as above in each case.

13. The Committee shall arrange for such assistance as may be necessary to correct proofs, etc., when the work is in the press.
